

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We moved to our current residence approximately a year ago. It was too late to sign up for the NO CALL list for this past year. We have been bombarded with annoying calls. We have been looking forward to next year and the reduction in these calls!